Fourth Sunday of Lent

Welcome, Announcements and Prayer Concerns

PRAISE AND ADORATION

Call to Worship: (responsively) (adapted from Psalm 107:1-3 & 8-9)

Leader: O give thanks to the LORD, for he is good;

People: For God’s steadfast love endures forever.

Leader: Let the redeemed of the LORD say so,

People: Those he redeemed from trouble and gathered in from the lands, from the east and from the west, from the north and from the south.

Leader: Let us thank the LORD for his steadfast love, for his wonderful works to humankind.

People: For he satisfies the thirsty, and the hungry he fills with good things.

All: O give thanks to the LORD, for he is good.

CONFESSION AND FORGIVENESS

Call to Confession

Prayer of Confession: (in unison)

Holy God, we grow comfortable with the way things are in our lives, in the church and in the world. We do not always welcome the new life you offer in Christ, especially when you challenge our desires. Sure of our own righteousness, we judge others and wanting to control our own stuff, we hold selfishly to the gifts you give us. Forgive us, Lord Jesus, for seeking more at the expense of others and help us to bend our lives toward your own example of self-giving love. In your name and for your sake we pray. Amen.

Assurance of Pardon

Greeting One Another with a wave or a smile

HEARING THE WORD

Let the Children Come – Please place your change for the Affirmation of Faith: (adapted from question 1 of the Heidelberg Catechism)

Leader: What is your deepest comfort?

All: My deepest comfort in sickness and in health, in times of peace or times of trouble, in life and in death, is that I belong – body and soul – not to myself but to my faithful Savior, Jesus Christ, who at the cost of his own blood has fully paid for all my sins and has completely freed me from the dominion of the devil; that he protects me so well that without the will of my Father in heaven not a hair can fall from my head; indeed, that everything must fit his purpose for my salvation. Therefore, by his Holy Spirit, he also assures me of eternal life, and makes me wholeheartedly willing and ready from now on to live for him.
